Shepherd’s Corner

The Clergy of the Archdiocese are having our annual assembly Tuesday and Wednesday next week. An always important ecclesial gathering, let’s keep each other in mutual prayer. It was a great astounding shock to hear the sudden, without consultation, decision by the ACT Government to use law to take over Calvary hospital. The Archbishop’s Media release is in the foyer. I put a novena to St Joseph Protector of the Church on the back, if anyone feels to join me praying it for nine days from this Sunday until 22 May- with intention that our Catholic hospital be saved. God’s blessings Fr Em

PARISH AND ARCHDIOCESAN NOTICES

The Paschal Journey of the Lord

Riding through the road of palms, Jesus journeys into Jerusalem, where he faces the anguish of his looming fate, his trial and judgement, his ascent of Golgotha – the place of crucifixion outside the town where, carrying all of us, he surrenders himself in death into the heart of the Father.

With the dawn of the third day Jesus rises in glory, marking out for all humanity the pattern of our own journey into light.

Into this healing, transforming light of Christ we bring all the dark and destructive elements oppressing humanity and the earth itself.
