“A Contemporary Perspective”

Wednesday 25th May 2011, 7.30 – 9.00pm

St. Thomas More Hall at 30 White Crescent, Campbell followed by light supper.

Presented by

Hon Andrew Robb AO, MP

Shadow Minister for Finance and Debt Reduction

Chairman of the Coalition Policy Development Committee

The Speaker

Andrew Robb grew up on a dairy farm in Epping (north of Melbourne) with his parents and 8 brothers and sisters. He attended Parade Christian Brothers College in Melbourne and later gained a Diploma of Agricultural Science from Dookie Agricultural College and an Honours Degree in Economics from La Trobe University.

From 1972 to 1989, Mr Robb served as Executive Director of the Cattle Council of Australia and later Executive Director of the National Farmers' Federation. From 1990 – 1997, he served as Federal Director and Campaign Director of the Liberal Party. He then worked in the private sector until being elected to the Federal seat of Goldstein in 2004.

Mr Robb was appointed Minister for Vocational and Further Education in the Howard Government and then following the Coalition's move to Opposition became Shadow Minister for Foreign Affairs. He now serves as the Chairman of the Coalition Policy Development Committee and Shadow Minister for Finance and Debt Reduction.

Mr Robb was awarded the Order of Australia and Centenary Medal for service to agriculture and politics. He is married to Maureen and has three children Tom, Joe and Pip.
